over the weekend. And so I'm suggesting to the body that you do get your bills to the drafter as soon as possible and we will not have to take off any more time for the introduction of bills, for the drafting of the bills--pardon me, not for the introduction but for the drafting of the bills and so I would hope that when we adjourn now, we would adjourn until 10 o'clock Monday morning and that you present your bills to the bill drafter immediately today or tomorrow or even possibly Saturday but Saturday they will be doing their drafting. So I'm sure we can continue our session in a good sound, continuous fashion.

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. You have some reports. Will the clerk please read the reports.

New bills, Mr. President. Read. LB 228; LB 229; LB 230.

PRESIDENT: Senator Burbach.

SENATOR BURBACH: (Mike not activated) for information. I did forget to mention by adjourning until Monday morning until 10 o'clock, the Executive Committee wants to meet at 9:30 for the referral of bills.

PRESIDENT: There has been a motion and second to adjourn. By voice vote, all those in favor signify by saying aye. Contrary. We will record our vote. Record your vote on the matter of adjournment until 10 o'clock, Monday. All those in favor-- Have you all voted? Motion fails. Excuse me, Vince or Mr. Clerk, will you record the vote.

CLERK: 17 ayes, 23 nays.

PRESIDENT: Before we do that, the chair got hasty. I read the count before we electronically recorded it. It is the chair's opinion that the motion to adjourn failed. The chair recognizes Senator DeCamp. For what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR DeCAMP: Mr. President, I move that LR 4 be advanced. Let's vote it and not worry about it over the weekend.

PRESIDENT: Yes, do you want to withdraw your motion to suspend the Rules, Senator?
